THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LIBERATION AND REFORM

While you may have to reach for an atlas to determine that Isaiah is speaking about Galilee, today's first reading (part of which was read at Christmas) is prophetic of Jesus' future ministry in that province. The light that brings salvation and rejoicing is, ultimately, Christ. Liberation is the theme: liberation from both ignorance ("darkness") and sin (the "yoke").

As Isaiah identifies a place, so Paul describes an attitude: the attitude that develops, even among good people, of equating their own will with the common good. This always brings dissension, and so it has done in Corinth. Paul will not allow this; we are all members of "Christ's party." The gospel is not to divide us.

Matthew quotes from Isaiah in today's Gospel, presenting Jesus as the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecies. The theme is "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matthew 4:17). To spread this message, Jesus begins to select disciples, four of whom we meet today: Peter, Andrew, James, and John.

NEW PRACTICE FOR LISTING FLOWER MEMORIALS OR HONORARIA

We are very grateful to so many parishioners and visitors who respond to the opportunity to contribute to the beautiful floral arrangements we have in the church for Christmas and Easter. Since we had been receiving such a tremendous response to our need for contributions, we had been listing the names of donors and names of those designated as "In memory/In Honor of...". We are adopting a new practice, effective immediately, to more closely unite the idea of memorializing and honoring our loved ones with the sacred liturgies that occur during Christmas and Easter. We will now place all the envelopes for flowers for Christmas and Easter on a pedestal near the sacred altar for the octaves of Christmas and Easter as a spiritual offering to our God. This new procedure will replace the listing of names in the parish bulletin. Please note that this procedure does not affect the listing of altar floral arrangements that we have on a weekly basis for much of the liturgical year.
